Hospitality Volunteers List

Following the delightful Mothers' Day Service, a need for a list of hospitality volunteers is essential so that the workload is spread. At the small table near the console is a Hospitality Volunteers List on which you are invited to add your name if you feel that you are able to assist in any of the following ways when we have special services at Western Heights:

1. Setting up tables and chairs the day before.
2. Setting the tables the day before: Tablecloths, flowers, serviettes, etc.
3. Baking for the event: e.g. a batch of scones, a slice.
4. Cooking for the event: e.g. a casserole.
5. Donations for the event: A loaf of raisin bread, butter, sandwiches, etc.
6. Kitchen helpers at the time of the event.

The more volunteers we have, the fewer times we will need to volunteer.

I thank you in anticipation.
Velma Oliver.

ACTS 16: 9-15

During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, 'Come over to Macedonia and help us.' When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them. We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshipper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, 'If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home.' And she prevailed upon us.

JOHN 14: 23-29

Jesus answered him, 'Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me. 'I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, "I am going away, and I am coming to you." If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe.
