Biggest Morning Tea Thank-You

A very special thank-you to everyone who contributed and/or participated in the Biggest Morning Tea Fund-Raiser for the Cancer Council, initiated by Glenn Chidzey. It was very heart-warming to see so many of our congregants stay for a most delightful morning tea and fellowship. The sum of $607 was raised, and this included a very generous $200 donated by our Tuesday Friendship Group. Geoff Coots is happy to receive any late donations today. Once again, thank you. Velma Oliver.

Pastoral Care Survey

The Pastoral Care working group are reviewing and exploring how Pastoral Care is provided at Western Heights.

Your feedback would be valuable in facilitating a way forward, so please fill out the survey and return your completed copy to Jan (Western Heights Office).

PSALM 42

To the leader. A Maskil of the Korahites. As a deer longs for flowing streams, so my soul longs for you, O God. My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and behold the face of God? My tears have been my food day and night, while people say to me continually, 'Where is your God?' These things I remember, as I pour out my soul: how I went with the throng, and led them in procession to the house of God, with glad shouts and songs of thanksgiving, a multitude keeping festival. Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God. My soul is cast down within me; therefore I remember you from the land of Jordan and of Hermon, from Mount Mizar. Deep calls to deep at the thunder of your cataracts; all your waves and your billows have gone over me. By day the LORD commands his steadfast love, and at night his song is with me, a prayer to the God of my life. I say to God, my rock, 'Why have you forgotten me? Why must I walk about mournfully because the enemy oppresses me?' As with a deadly wound in my body, my adversaries taunt me, while they say to me continually, 'Where is your God?' Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God.

PSALM 43

Vindicate me, O God, and defend my cause against an ungodly people; from those who are deceitful and unjust deliver me! For you are the God in whom I take refuge; why have you cast me off? Why must I walk about mournfully because of the oppression of the enemy? O send out your light and your truth; let them lead me; let them bring me to your holy hill and to your dwelling. Then I will go to the altar of God, to God my exceeding joy; and I will praise you with the harp, O God, my God. Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God.
